THE WARD NOMINATIONS.

The Republican caucuses were well attended last night, which showed that considerable interest was felt on the question of ward nominations. The action of the caucuses is a credit to the body of Republicans who composed them. Mr. James Clark was brought out as a candidate for alderman in the first ward. He not only commands great personal influence, but he will make a careful, judicious and a zealous member of the Council. He can draw out the full party vote and will therefore be elected. In the second ward W. T. Vankirk received the nomination. He is acknowledged to be one of the best men in the ward. He is a thorough business man, is well informed in all city matters, has energy, enterprise and ability, and will represent his constituents in a manner which will be commended by all irrespective of party. The caucus in the third ward tendered the nomination for aldermanic honors to Mr. D. E. Fifeled which he accepted. The Republicans in the old third—the scene of many local struggles—should by all means unite their strength on Mr. Fifeled. The honor of the ward, and the needs of the Council, demand his election. His qualifications are such as will enable him to render the ward good service. He is a gentleman and representative man and his election will reflect credit on the voters in the ward. The "oldest inhabitant" was complimented in the fourth ward last night with the nomination for alderman. The choice is a good one in every particular. Mr. Volney Atwood is one of the most deeply respected citizens in the city. He has the profound respect of everybody. He has seen Janesville grow from a log cabin to a prosperous and beautiful city of 12,000. He is an excellent business man, is well informed in municipal affairs, and has the moral courage to honestly represent and defend the interests of the city. The Republicans in the fifth ward unanimously chose Mr. G. A. Libbey for alderman. He is one of the substantial men of the city, and will make a careful, judicious and faithful member of the Common Council. He is one of those unflinching men who can never be "bullied" or "trapped" in any scheme which will not be for the best interests of the city. We hope the Republicans will rally their entire forces next Tuesday and succeed in electing Mr. Libbey.

The caucuses also made nominations for supervisors, constables and commissioners, and for these offices, selected good men.

The Republican City Convention meets to-morrow afternoon to nominate candidates for the several city offices. Upon the work of that body depends largely the success of the party next Tuesday. It is not likely that any material change will be made in the ticket from that of last year. The present officers have given very general satisfaction, and those of them who desire a re-nomination will receive the cordial support of the party. Should any change be made growing out of any one of the present officers refusing to run, the greatest caution should be exercised in the selection of new candidates. Strong and capable men should be selected so that they can claim the united and vigorous support of the Republicans.

Senator Howe, of Wisconsin, evidently feels very badly about something or other, or why yesterday's terrible explosion of bile? What were the special appointments he sought for at the hands of the President, and didn't get? In other words, what has given him the sore head?

The old man has been trying to get on the Supreme Bench for the past dozen years, and hence the explosion of bile. Again, he is looking after a re-nomination, and knowing that a majority of Republicans of Wisconsin are not friendly to the President's policy, he made his speech against the Administration purely for the sake of political capital. How can't make that dodge win.

The State Journal says the Sheboygan and Fond du Lac roads is to be extended to Elroy, in Juneau county, where it will tap

The Northwestern, thus giving the latter a direct route from Minnesota to Milwaukee and Chicago via Fond du Lac, over the air-line. The Sheboygan Company is to build the road, and the Northwestern is to guarantee the interest on the construction bonds. The proposed extension will involve the construction of about seventy-five miles of new road.

This characteristic (honest conviction) is a strong point with Senator Howe, and makes him strong with the people. They believe in his perfect integrity of character; that he acts from the best and the purest of motives.—State Journal.

This is the roughest joke of the season, and will even provoke a smile from the antiquated and sore-headed Senator, to think how he duped the editor of the Journal.

Tilden has been beaten in one point in the suit of the Government against him to recover $150,000. Judge Blatchford of the United States District Court, has decided that Tilden must submit to a jury trial on eleven of the twelve counts of the indictment.

There is a prospect that the present bankrupt law, which was enacted in 1867, will be repealed by the present session of Congress. All the Democrats favor its repeal, as also do many Republicans.

Dr. J. H. Babcock and Frank Hoyt, of Beaver Dam, who are in the sheep business in Colorado, had the misfortune to lose 2,000 of their sheep by the severe snowstorm that occurred out West a few days ago.

Col. J. A. Watrous, G. W. T., started Monday for a visit to several lodges, and will speak at Portage City, Hancock, Plainfield, Almond, Coloma, Westfield, Oxford, Montello and Packwaukee, upon the temperance question.

Wholesale, Dennison & Co.'s friends at Hartford said that the worst feature of their failure is the fact that they had a large amount of money on deposit belonging to poor people of Hartford and the surrounding country. They paid ten per cent. interest on deposits remaining in their hands a specified time. They held the money of farmers, widows and school districts, and the catastrophe falls upon some with crushing force.

A man in Fond du Lac scraped together $90 and secreted it in a parlor stove, where he supposed it would be safe. The next day the wife started a fire in the stove, and the $90 went up in smoke.

The Northern Wisconsin Agricultural and Mechanical Convention, held at Oshkosh, last week, was well attended. Papers were read by Prof. T. C. Chamberlain, of Beloit, M. C. Bushnell, of Oshkosh, Geo. T. Kellogg, of Janesville, J. C. Plumb, of Milton, Hiram Smith, of Sheboygan, Judge Pauling, of Oshkosh, Dr. A. C. Barry, Hon. J. E. Thomas, Mrs. D. C. Ayers, and D. W. Fernandez. Mrs. M. E. Harmon contributed a poem, and Prof. C. H. Haskins, of Milwaukee, lectured on the telephone.

The principal of the public schools at Oshkosh was fined $1.60 and costs for punishing a boy in charge of a subordinate teacher.

The Racine correspondent says: It seems almost incredible, but it is a fact, that there is a man in this city with a wife and four children, who has worked in a manufacturing establishment for years at $1.80 per week, and during all that time has not received a cent of money, his wages being paid him in orders. On these starvation wages he has supported himself and family.

An old man named Mopson, keeping a store at Winnebago City, Minnesota, was robbed and assaulted by burglars at an early hour Sunday morning. Not finding money, the robbers assaulted him, inflicting injuries from which he is not expected to recover.

Cyrus Aldrich, of Green Bay, sentenced by Judge Ellis to two years in State prison for highway robbery, and Elias Sayres to one year for stealing cattle, were sent to Waupun Tuesday.

PERSONS AND POLITICS.

Mr. D. R. Locke (Nash) has again become owner of a controlling interest in the Toledo Weekly Blade. Dr. A. P. Miller, for many years managing editor, withdraws from the paper. Mr. Locke has been doing good work as editor of the New York Evening Mail for the past three years.

Ex-Representative Glen W. Schofield, of Pennsylvania, will be nominated by the President to be register of the treasury in place of Hon. John Allison, deceased.

Becher set out yesterday on a two weeks lecturing tour, making his first appearance at Logansport, Ind., on Wednesday. He has fifteen engagements, ending at Cleveland on the 5th of April. His agent, Mr. Pond, pays him $5,000 a year, and takes whatever is over.

Mrs. Myra Clark Gaines offers to compromise her claim against New Orleans in consideration of an annual payment of $250,000 for a term of ten years. She has obtained a verdict, but the city is so hard up that it cannot satisfy judgment.

The Milwaukee Sentinel: A few days ago we published an extract from the letter of a young man at Beloit who has long ings for a wife. Yesterday The Sentinel received a communication from a young woman who lives at Buffalo, New York, whose address the young man can secure on application at this office. She writes that she is "a young girl of twenty, of dark complexion, poor, but of good character and of good family." If The Sentinel can do anything towards the overthrow of celibacy, it will go into the match-making business. But it is to be understood that it does not hold itself responsible for the results—if there are mothers-in-law and curtain lectures and all that sort of thing, it can offer no remedy.

The firm of Woodhull & Sister proposes to establish itself in England. Let's say nothing more about the Fisheries Award, but pay over the $5,500,000. We can afford to.—Tribune.

Tilton has been lecturing assiduously in New England this winter, getting from $100 to $250 a night, and yet he is peculiarly embarrassed.

The new Blue Book has been published. It is a large royal octavo volume of nearly 1,000 pages, which gives the name of every one in the service of the United States, civil, military and naval, on the 30th of September, with their birthplaces, the States from which they were appointed, and the compensation, pay, and emoluments of each. Members of Congress have but two copies each, and the work is in great demand.

The last Republican national platform affirmed the necessity of devoting the public lands "to free homes for the people," not to their sale for a division of the plunder at Washington under the specious plea of popular education.—Hartford Courant (Rep.)

THE PRESIDENT.

The President Exceedingly Calm and Indifferent, Despite Senator Howe—He Prefers to Make No Response—Believing in Acts, not Words.

WASHINGTON, March 26.—A number of members of Congress, friends of the President, called upon him this morning with reference to the speech of Senator Howe. They all expressed more feeling in the matter than the President himself, and suggested that the speech be answered, fearing that to permit it to pass in silence might be an admission of its entire truth. The President took a different view, placing himself on the ground that what he had done in the way of an official act was not a personal act, and that, without thinking for a moment what might be the result as affecting him personally, he was opposed to public response, preferring that his acts should be the best interpreter of his motives and principles. He had sought to perform his duty with this in his view, no matter how others might view his conduct. All would recollect, he said, how bitterly Senator Howe had denounced President Lincoln toward the close of his first term, and how others sought to prevent President Lincoln from being nominated for the second term, but notwithstanding all this he was re-nominated and became more popular than ever, the people having become better acquainted with him, and appreciating his conduct more. President Hayes was perfectly willing to be judged by the same tribunal. The President does not appear in the least disturbed by Senator Howe's speech, believing time will fully vindicate him. Among those who called were Senators Matthews, Hoar, Cameron, of Wisconsin, and Ferry, and Representative McCook, of New York.

THE EAST.

Russia Determined to Hold Firm to Her Demands. No Matter from what Source Opposition Comes—And the Great Question Now Is, Will England Recede or Fight—Everything Now Points to a Great War.

St. Petersburg, March 26.—The Journal de St. Petersburg, which is the recognized organ of Prince Gortchakoff, the Russian Chancellor, published on Sunday last a remarkable resume of the European situation, which was written entirely by Baron Somini, the Chancellor's Secretary. The tone of the article is very decided, and concludes with the following scientific words: "The moment has arrived when this question should be definitely settled with the concurrence of the Continental Europe, if it wishes it; without its concurrence, if necessary." These words are all the more significant, coming as they do, after the Czar Alexander's determination four days ago to push matters to the last extremity. Ever since that determination was arrived at the telegraph between St. Petersburg and Vienna has been kept in a constant state of activity, and things have assumed a really serious aspect. Russia has evidently determined to hold firm in her demands, even if war should be the result, and, indeed, there is room to believe

PENSION AGENCIES.

A Proposition to Pay Pensioners Direct from the Treasury, and Abolish the Agencies.

WASHINGTON, March 26.—The House Invalid Pension Committee have endorsed the bill of the Appropriation Committee to abolish all pension agencies and pay pensioners direct from the Treasury. The bill provides that pensioners send vouchers to the Treasury, and a draft for the pension be returned, the draft payable at any money-order post office. The bill will have the support in the House of the Appropriation and Pension Committees. It is claimed $200,000 can be saved annually by this plan. It now costs $300,000 a year to maintain pension agents, and it is estimated that $100,000 will pay for the additional clerks necessary in the Treasury to operate the new plan. Gen. Rice, chairman of the Pension Committee, says the Treasury officials approve the plan, and say they can operate it with 100 additional clerks.

RESUMPTION.

A Partial Investigation by a Sub-Committee of the House.

WASHINGTON, March 26.—Ewing and Chittenden, the Sub-Committee who went to New York to witness the weighing of specie in the Sub-Treasury, have reported to the House Banking and Currency Committee that the recount established the correctness of Secretary Sherman's report. They stated that they consulted a large number of leading New York bankers in regard to resumption, and almost unanimously the bankers declared that Secretary Sherman cannot resume with the amount of specie he expects to have next January. The bankers referred to Sherman's recent statement to the Senate Finance Committee, and said if resumption is attempted on that basis the banks will drain the Treasury in a few days.

THE FRONTIER.

General Sheridan wants New Military Post on Milk River.

WASHINGTON, March 26.—General Sheridan has asked from Congress through the War Department, an appropriation of $100,000 to erect a new military post at some point on Milk River, where he thinks he can control Sitting Bull and the buffalo country. He says there are now 12,000 Indians between the Missouri river and the Canadian line, which may have to fight this coming summer, and the need of a new post is urgent.

LIGHTNING.

A Whitewater Man Instantly Killed by Lightning.

WHITWATER, Wis., March 26.—A man named Frank Rassel, a Swiss by birth, was instantly killed by a stroke of lightning here today. He was working in Butz's nursery, and had a crowbar in his hand. He was a worthy industrious man, and leaves a wife and three children. It is but a few months since he came to Whitewater from Illinois. The storm was very light, and but very little rain fell.

WAS HE INNOCENT?

Indications that One Too Many Molasses Were Hung—Sad Thought for Mrs. Hester.

Bloomington (Pa.) Dispatch to New York Herald.
Col. Quay, a member of the Board of Pardoners, who refused to join with the Democratic members of the Board as to the question of Hester's guilt for several days, almost balanced the scale of justice in favor of Hester. We influence or what evidence changed his mind is not known, but I do know that Col. Quay argued to himself that the presumption of Hester being a party to the murder of Rea for the sake of pecuniary gain was not reasonable. That Hester, a business man and well versed in the local events of the neighborhood, must have known that Friday, and not Saturday, was the day, and therefore would not be likely to go on an expedition of that character when he knew the game had been bagged. Again, Hester was not a poor man, but had means, and had had abundant opportunities to rob the town and county, but that there was no evidence to prove that he had ever pursued anything but an honorable course. These questions had great weight with Colonel Quay, the man necessary in the Board to commute or pardon Hester. One Harris, who seems to be one of the strongest witnesses against Hester, testified to seeing Hester on the morning of the murder near the scene of bloodshed in company with several men. But Mrs. Hester who religiously believes in her husband's innocence, says she knows her husband was home in his hotel at Locust Gap that morning.

Sad Death of a Writer.

From the New York Telegram.
This morning a little boy appeared at the Morgue and identified the remains of the man who was found sick, destitute and in a dying condition at Eighth avenue and Seventy-eighth street yesterday, as those of his father, Terrace A. Brady. Mr. Brady was one of the characters of New York and was especially well known and appreciated in newspaper circles. Unobtrusive in his manners, yet genial and courteous in disposition, his appearance undoubtedly mitigated against his success in the world of letters. Not that he did not possess ability. On the contrary he was a man who kept well informed on all the leading topics of the day and was a regular attendant at the public libraries, where he labored hard in preparing articles which he would, when completed, offer for sale to the daily papers. In questions which required research he possessed peculiar ability, and could always be relied on to furnish an article on any subject replete with facts and statistics. Of his early life little is known, except that he was born in Limerick, Ireland, and when very young served bravely in the Seminole war in Florida, where he received a severe wound on the forehead. Indeed this scar was one of the marks by which his little son, who is now an orphan destitute, was enabled to identify him. The last seen of Mr. Brady was at noon yesterday, when he was at his apartment. At one time Mr. Brady was editor and proprietor of the San Francisco Monitor, which he conducted with marked ability. He was only 45 years old at the time of his death.

Married the Woman Who Beat Him.

The Corning, New York Journal is responsible for the following romantic story: "A citizen who holds a conspicuous official position, got acquainted with his amiable and excellent wife a dozen years ago at Elmira, where she was on a visit. He met her at a party and was introduced. Perhaps they would have remained strangers but for an incident, as follows: He was driving out at Southport and met a lady in a buggy, alone. Wishing to show the speed of his horse, he undertook to pass her. She whipped up her horse and kept ahead. He recognized his new acquaintance, and was determined not to be balked in his effort, and he urged his own horse into a rapid gallop, and for a mile on that Sunday morning, there was a lively race on the plank road. He failed to drive by her, but was doubtless impressed favorably by the grit displayed, so that an acquaintance soon led to a wedding. It is a suggestive query, whether she has 'kept ahead' since then; but whether so or not, they are a very happy couple."

True Republicanism.

Albany (N. Y.) Journal.
The "true, living Republicanism which we all so love to hear" means peace and good will to the south, but not the abandonment of Republican rights. It means conciliation for confederates who will show conciliation in return, but not their preference over good Republicans. It means honest and consistent efforts to elevate the public service according to intelligent, practical and effective methods. It means active and resolute warfare against that combination of southern claimants and northern inflationists which threatens the future of our country. In a word, it means the best inspirations of the patriotic masses of the land organized and vitalized in positive action. That is the true Republicanism of the times.

Let Well Enough Alone.

From the New York Methodist.
"I don't object," said the quartermaster, on Sunday morning, while our ship was running toward the Equator, before the northeast trade wind, "I don't object to prayers when it blows a hurricane or when we are on a lee-shore. But here we are called aft to prayers when the weather is as fine as ever was made; fair winds every day; a clear sun at noon; skysails, studding sails, and everything else set; not a brace or sheet unbelayed for weeks; the ship going ahead so steady that she could carry a glass of sherry on that capstan, and not spill a drop of it. But prayers it is, according to orders! Now, what's the good of it?"

Michigan Republicans.

A Michigan editor who has sent circulars of inquiry to several thousand Republicans in the State, receives 337 yes to 241 no to the question whether Mr. Hayes' leadership is for the best interests of the party, 309 in favor of the Southern policy to 296 against, 343 in favor of his civil service reform policy to 176 against, and 323 yes against 343 no to the question, "Do you have the same confidence in Mr. Hayes' ability and disinterestedness that you had a year ago?"

BRIEFLETS.

The weather don't seem to know what to do with itself.

The Young Men's Christian Association met, this evening, in their room, at half past seven o'clock.

The jail has been quite thoroughly cleared of tramps, by runaways and releases. Only one was added to the list last night.

There have been during the week ending Saturday, March 23, twenty-one transfers of real estate recorded, the considerations amounting to $39,953.23.

A special place of deposit is being arranged in the post office for city letters, so that they will be looked out for, and distributed as soon as they are dropped in.

There is some talk of informally attaching the question of "cow ordinance" or "no cow ordinance" to the tickets in order to gain an expression of the will of the people.

The Knights of Pythias held their first regular meeting last night and commenced practical work in the mysteries of the order. There was only one absentee, and the members started in enthusiastically.

The Bower City Band will give its annual concert next Wednesday evening. All lovers of good music will be amply repaid by attending. The band was never in better trim and has been industriously practicing.

The Camilla Urso concert troupe have definitely fixed upon April 9th as the date of their appearance in Janesville, according to a telegram received to-day. There will probably be an even larger audience than greeted their appearance when last here.

A goodly number sought to spend last evening at the Musical Club, but were greeted with locked doors and darkened rooms, and turned homeward somewhat disappointed and somewhat provoked at the fact of there being no meeting as announced.

Arthur E. Welch, one of the Janesville young men who lived here many years, has accepted a position as a traveling salesman for the publishing house of Cassell, Potter & Galpin, New York. His position is a lucrative one, and his success fully merited.

J. D. Rexford and his youngest son have returned from California where they have been spending most of the winter. They are gladly welcomed back. Mr. Rexford seems to have gained some in health but the climate did not seem to prove as beneficial to his son.

The School of Telegraphy on learning this morning that some of their members had been robbed of $100, the particulars of which will be found in another column, generously and promptly put their hands in their pockets, and raised $60 which was paid over to the unfortunate. This shows a kindly feeling and a true spirit of sympathy rarely manifested under such circumstances.

The Presbyterians held one of their pleasant social gatherings at the residence of Mr. S. G. Williams last evening. The usual attractions of friendly greetings and chattings, games, readings and music filled the hours, and refreshments served by the ladies filled the guests. Altogether it was a happy occasion, and served to strengthen the many ties of friendship already existing.

Rey. Mr. Sawin had a small audience, last evening, at the Congregational church, but they listened most eagerly to his address on "Count Mirabeau." Those who were present declare that it showed a great amount of research, and that the life and conflicts of that time were pictured vividly and clearly, and that the lecture was far above the average of those delivered in this city.

The Scotch entertainment to be given by Messrs. Rhys and Alden next Friday evening at the Opera house, should not be forgotten. Mr. Alden is said to be a fine musical artist. The Rockford News says of Mr. Rhys: "In his biographical sketches, Prof. Rhys' selections were short, pithy and pointed, his delivery is easy, gestures graceful, and the applause he received showed the hearty appreciation and endorsement which his audience tendered him."

Miss Susan B. Anthony will lecture at All Souls church this evening on "Woman wants Bread, not the Ballot." She needs no introduction to the public, and she should be greeted by a goodly sized audience. The subject on which she speaks is one with which she is thoroughly conversant, and the lecture will doubtless prove an interesting one. She is a clear thinker and agreeable speaker, and is eagerly listened to even by those who do not indorse all her ideas.

THE WEATHER.

The thermometer this morning at 7 o'clock stood at 48 degrees above, and at 2 o'clock at 46 degrees above. Rainy. One year ago to-day at corresponding hours the thermometer stood at 85 degrees and 41 degrees above. The indications to-day are for upper lake region, upper Mississippi and lower Missouri valleys, partly cloudy weather, with occasional rain areas, colder northerly winds and rising barometer, preceded at the south and east stations by warm, southerly winds and falling barometer.

KILLED BY LIGHTNING.

A Norwegian farmer, whose name is not learned, was drawing a load of tobacco into Edgerton yesterday and when about a mile and a half from the village, lightning struck the horse killing him instantly, and astonishing the driver that he lay unconscious for some time.

A HOUSE TUMBLING.

Mr. Edgar W. Clute has been building a residence on Jackson street, and yesterday completed the excavation of a cellar situated about four feet from the north wall of the house. The laborers hurried to make ready for the stone masons who were to begin to-day, but last evening the gravel which was underlying the clay surface, began to give way, causing the clsters to completely cave in, and carrying with it several feet of the foundation of the house. It was thought for a short time that the house would tumble also, and laborers were sent for hurriedly and picked up from the highways and by-ways to shovel in the dirt which they had spent all day in shoveling out. By speedy and diligent work further damage was prevented.

THE TICKET MAKERS.

The Republicans Make Their Ward Nominations, and Set the Ball Rolling.

They Enter Upon the Campaign with Enthusiasm and with Commendable Unanimity.

The Republicans held their ward caucus last evening at the places announced. There was a sufficiently large number in attendance at each caucus to indicate that the party intends making a strong pull for a victory at the polls.

There was an apparent unanimity in most of the gatherings so that the business for which they were called together was transacted without delay or disorderly bickering. In strange contrast with the Democratic caucuses there were no blanks left to be timidly filled in at some later day, when the plans of opponents were made known. Nominations were made in every ward, and the work will now commence in earnest. The following gives the nominations in full:

Dr. Henry Palmer was elected Chairman and George Davey, Secretary. N. O. Clark and F. S. Lawrence were appointed tellers.

Alderman—James Clark.
Supervisor—J. C. Metcalf.
Constable—John H. Taylor.
Delegates—J. C. Metcalf, N. O. Clark, B. F. Crockett, James Clark and H. S. Woodruff.

Alderman—D. E. Pfeiffer.
Supervisor—B. B. Eldredge.
Constable—A. W. Parker.
Delegates—Wm. Rager, J. D. King, A. H. Baxter, B. B. Eldredge and Charles H. Lee. No Ward Committee appointed.

The Committee was instructed to call the next caucus either at the West Side Engine House or the Council Chamber in the First Ward, as there seems to be no conveniences for holding the caucus in the Fourth Ward.

J. B. Carle was selected as Chairman and John Berrie, Secretary. G. A. Libbey and John Spaulding were selected as tellers.

Alderman—G. A. Libbey.
Supervisor—J. B. Carle.
Constable—N. E. Bennett, G. A. Libbey and John Berrie.

Ward Committee—N. E. Bennett, G. A. Libbey and John Berrie.

There has been a lively sensation at the Western School of Telegraphy, caused by the sudden disappearance of one of the well-known students and the mysterious disappearance at the same time of about $100 in cash belonging to his room-mates.

It seems that J. B. Martin, the young man, who has suddenly left the city, hails from Akron, O., where he formerly worked in the manufacturing of reaper knives, until he joined the Telegraph School about six months ago, while it was located at Englewood. When it moved back to this city, Martin came also, and has since been in this city learning the mysteries of using the lightning. Together with several other students he formed a club, which occupied rooms in Church's block. A few days ago he persuaded one of his comrades named T. T. Nickle, who hails from Canada, that the bank in which Nickle had his money was going to break, and induced him to draw it out and hide it in his trunk. Nickle did so and thus stowed away $65 for safe-keeping. Yesterday afternoon when the members of the club returned to their rooms they found their trunks broken open, and Nickle's $65 was missing. George A. Wagar, of Michigan, another student of the club, missed $35 from his trunk. Martin's trunk was still in the room, but on opening it, it was found to be entirely empty. Martin apparently having left it as a blind, and taken his clothes away with him. No one has seen Martin since about 10 o'clock yesterday morning, when he stepped into Jameson & Decker's store, where the boys were in the habit of trading. He borrowed $5 of Mr. Decker, on some pretext, and has not reported since. It seems probable that he took the $105, and his clothes, and unceremoniously bade good-by to his comrades and the city. The wires are being used freely to head him off, and cause his arrest. He is a short young man, about 30 years old, and wears a mustache of sandy tinge.

MUNICIPAL MATTERS.

The City Fathers Consider Sundry Business, and Accept a Batch of Resignations.—The Troubles of being a Pound Master.—One of the Overseers of the Tramps Lopped off the Pay-roll.

The regular gathering about the aldermanic board took place last evening. Mayor Norcross in the chair, and A. O. Wilson acting as Clerk pro tem.

The reading of the minutes was dispensed with, and the usual batch of miscellaneous accounts was presented, and referred to the Finance Committee.

There seemed a regular panic among the members of the Board of Registry, owing to the law forbidding members filling other offices, and resignations were received from Ald. James Church, Third ward, Ald. J. B. Fitzgibbon, Fifth ward, M. S. Prichard, Second ward, Dr. O. P. Robinson, and Ald. J. A. Blount, Fourth ward.

On motion of Ald. Blount the City Clerk was ordered to immediately notify the Board of the general exodus which had taken place, that the vacancies might be filled.

The bonds of the Chief Engineer of the Fire Department and his two assistants, were presented and referred to the Fire Department Committee, who shortly afterwards reported them as being correct in form and in amount, and were thereupon approved.

On motion of Ald. Blount the Clerk was instructed to draw an order for $300 on the Wisconsin Street Fund, in favor of Reed, Daley & Ryder, to apply on their contract for grading.

Attention was called by the Mayor to the fact that there were not as many tramps to be worked on the street as when the Council appointed two overseers, and hinted that one overseer might now suffice. The suggestion was acquiesced in, and on motion of Ald. Davies, Mr. A. K. Cuts was discharged, there being no further need of his services.

Ald. Blount then called attention to an ancient matter, it being the bill of Dr. Horne against the city to cover judgments and expenses which he has been called upon to pay personally on account of suits brought against him successfully by Mr. C. T. Wilcox, for acts done by him while he was acting as Pound Master. Attorney Winans presented the claim and explained it, and was supplemented by Dr. Horne. It appears that Horne impounded two of Wilcox's horses running loose on the street, and Wilcox claimed that the horses escaped while he was in church. He replevined, sued for damages and secured a judgment against Pound Master Horne for $67. Wilcox's horses afterwards got into Dr. Horne's yard and were again impounded which caused another suit, which has resulted adversely to Horne, who claims that as he acted in an official capacity and followed the instructions of the Mayor and City Attorney, the city should pay the bills. On motion of Ald. McKinney the matter was referred to the City Attorney with instructions to report at the next meeting.

The Treasurer's annual report and his monthly report ending March 19th, were reported by the Finance Committee as correct and were placed on file. The same Committee reported favorably on a budget of minor accounts.

The application of Marshal for a monthly theatrical license was reported back without recommendation from the Finance Committee, and was placed on file.

THE STATUTES AND SUNDAY READINGS.

To the Editor.

In your last evening's paper you quote the law of this State in regard to any "public diversion, show or entertainment," italicizing these words. This is evidently aimed at Mrs. Richardson's reading last Sabbath at All Souls church. I submit that this is an unjust inference. If the word "entertainment" can be stretched legally to cover this case, I do not see why it might not also cover those sermons delivered on the Sabbath which have for their object the moral and intellectual improvement of the heart. So far as my knowledge extends I know of no class of men before the public who strive in their way to put "entertainment" into their discourses more fervently than clergymen, so I further submit to the public judgment that if the word covers the one case it does the other. "David entertained himself with the meditation of God's law."

Do let us have freedom enough to be entertained and improve each in his own way on the Sabbath, provided the public morals are unharmed. To do otherwise is to show bigotry, selfishness or stupidity. It is the use made of the "entertainment" by the receiver that determines its value. What is bread to one may be stone to another. No one can be educated into a better life except through such things as they can receive. W. D. HASTINGS.

An Astonishing Fact.

A large proportion of the American people are to-day dying from the effects of Dyspepsia or disorders of the stomach. Millions of these people upon the masses of intelligent and valuable people is most alarming, making life actually a burden instead of a pleasant existence of enjoyment and usefulness as it ought to be. There is no good reason for this, if you will only throw aside prejudice and skepticism, take the advice of druggists and your friends, and try one bottle of Green's August Flower. You speedily relief is certain. Millions of bottles of this medicine have been given away to try its virtue, with satisfactory results in every case. You can buy a sample bottle for 10 cents to try. Three doses will relieve the worst case. Positively sold by all druggists on the western continent. decided-wewom

The New York Bulletin reviews the dry goods trade of this city as follows: "Men's wear woolens continue quiet in importer's hands, but were made a trifle more active with jobbers, whose sales of cloth, cashmeres, and worsted costings to the dry goods trade were rather more liberal. Matchless clothings were
